BATES

Formerly West Paris, on the G. T. Ry. 8 Miles N. W. from South Paris and Norway

Inez Bates and Arthur C. Hart of North Paris were married in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Saturday, the 15th, at 2 p. m. The Rev. George C. Smith of the United Parish Church officiating.

George C. Stone and two friends from Conway, N. H., visited Rev. and Mrs. George C. Smith at the parsonage, Friday, the 14th, and surprised them with a happy gift in the form of an Atwater-Kent radio, 7 tubes. These friends are connected with the M. E. church in Conway, of which Mr. Smith was a former pastor.

Last Sunday morning the West Paris Parish church in a body there were about twenty led by the Master and Ceres, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Richardson and enjoyed a specially prepared sermon by Rev. G. C. Smith. The text used was found in Matt. 22:1, the last leaf of the vine and one went to his farm and the other to his merchandise" and was a very helpful talk. The choir rendered special music.

Next Sunday morning, the 23rd, the local order of Masons and Rebekahs will recognize St. John's Day by attending her morning service at the United Parish church. There will be special music for the occasion. In the evening at 7 o'clock the children's day concert will be given in the Baptist church.

SUMMER

Summer-Joined Baseball League—Boxing Match—Callers at Bartlett's.

On the visiting foreign countries, the first day of New York City, or even the inside of Percy Redding's store for many years.

But to change the subject. Summer League of the season with a pick-up game of several towns from up the big river. The game was played on the Sunday, and resulted in favor of the visiting team to quite an extent. Well, it is interesting for the fans to see these little grass covered dunes, and had not a few other little faults which they are in hopes to fully overcome in the near future in such a way as to make it interesting for the fans to see these little grass covered dunes.

Last Friday there was a boxing match between two teams of the visiting team, and it was a very close one. The match was held at the home of the visiting team, and it was a very close one.

Oxford County United Parish

Embracing Albany, North Lovell, East Stoneham and the Waterfords. Pastoral Staff: Revs. W. I. Bull, B. F. Wentworth, A. C. Townsend

Rev. W. I. Bull is absent on his vacation. He and his family will spend a part of the week at the home of Mr. Bull's parents, then attend the Conference of Rural Church Workers at Ocean Park, after which they will visit Mr. Bull's parents and their former parish at Ashland, Me.

There were two interesting children's days in the parish last week. On Friday the schools of Waterford observed Flag Day as their closing program. All the schools of the town gathered at South Waterford Grange Hall, where an interesting program appropriate to the day was carried out.

On Saturday the school children of the parish gathered at the Grange Hall at Hunt's Corner, where interesting exercises were held.

Last Monday the Norway-South Paris Ministers' Association held its meeting at the home of Mrs. W. I. Bull.

The fire signals are to be the church bell rung continuously; telephone rung every half minute; the mill whistle blown when possible.

Next Sunday the first "All the Parish" service will be held at Hunt's Corner, Albany. Henry Merrill of Portland will be present with his Men's Class from St. Lawrence Church.

The service will be held at 10 a. m., standard time. The service will be held out of doors, if weather permits.

All regular morning services in the parish will be merged in this one.

WATERFORD

Returned from California—Hubbards at Hatfield—Guests in Town.

Miss Mabel Gage and Miss Carrie Plummer, who spent the week in California, have returned to Waterford. They came Friday evening and were supper guests of Mrs. Charlotte Fillebrown.

These ladies have many interesting stories to tell about their trip, which has been a very pleasant and interesting one.

Miss Ruth Thompson and a party of guests spent the week end at their summer home here.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard and children went to Hatfield, Mass., on Saturday, taking with them Madame Hubbard, who has spent the winter here.

There were a number of week end guests in the village; Mr. and Mrs. Matville of Boston at W. W. Fillebrown's; Mr. Crone and Mr. Loring from Colwell, N. J., at F. A. Morgan's; Tom Bishop, who is attending school at Reber Academy, Marion, Mass., at Stone House.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clark and children of Boston, have spent a few days at the Lake House and enjoyed the fishing.

Mrs. Wentworth Harrington, Evelyn and Ruth Harrington have opened their cottage, "By Ways" for the summer.

Byron Townsend, P. H. D. of the University of Oklahoma, with his wife and family, arrived here last week.

The electric line, which the Waterford Light & Power Co. have been building, takes on the following new subscribers: F. H. Morse & Son, Harold Pike, F. H. Johnson and Mrs. Armstrong.

School Reunion—Guests at Brown's. Banquet—Dance—Mrs. Shedd Visited Daughter.

June Brown has finished her school at South Waterford and is home on a few weeks' vacation. She is to go to New York with Muriel Sloan next week, with a lady friend, for a week's visit.

Don Brown is home from Paris High for the summer vacation.

The Bissetown School Reunion will be held as usual the last Saturday in June, the 29th. A good program is in preparation. The committee consists of: Lydia Shedd, vice president; Annie Hazeltine, secretary and treasurer. Lemonade and oranges will be served. Free, everyone to bring drinks.

Robert Hill is hauling hay that he bought of E. K. Shedd.

Mrs. Oniel Mills is helping a lady in Norway this week, packing her to ship to Massachusetts, Mrs. McGowan.

Henry Durgin and family made a door yard call at E. K. Shedd's, Sunday evening. They have very smart and fine looking family of children.

Ernest Brown sold some fine cows last week.

June Penfold and son, Jack, and Fred Record spent the week end at the home of their sister, Dot Brown, and husband.

Lydia Shedd spent a few days last week with her daughter, June Penfold. Fred Record took his mother, Mrs. J. F. Record, Mrs. Shedd, June Penfold and Jack to an auto ride, through the mountains, going by way of Gorham and Berlin, returning through Fryeburg. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all and a fine picnic dinner was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fisk went to Fryeburg, Sunday, and took his sister, Mrs. Evelyn Green, and son, Horace, who has been spending the week there with them. They enjoyed their ride and calling on friends very much.

Mrs. Wm. Fisk picked some nice strawberries from her garden, Monday. They have a fine looking garden.

ALBANY—HUNT'S CORNER

Merrill and Class to Conduct Sunday Services—Children's Day Observed.

Henry Merrill and class will conduct the Sunday morning service in Albany at 10 a. m., standard time. "Anyone who has ever heard Mr. Merrill speak wishes to hear him again. The class singing is most inspiring. Those attending will bring their lunch and the Circle will furnish coffee. The meeting will be held on the church and Grange lawn, which are connected.

Saturday, June 15, was observed as children's day at Round Mountain Grange. The meeting was called to order by Worthy Master Roy Wardwell. After the usual business a recess was called and the children invited in, when they listened to an interesting address by Mrs. Plummer. Dinner was served and the home on the Grange lawn, then all returned to the hall and the following program was given:
